USER'S GUIDE

THIRD EDITION

PREPARED BY:

OPL – DRUG INFORMATION CENTER

OPL – RECRUITMENT COMMITTEE

Beirut, May 2014

FOREWORD

Dear colleague,

Good pharmacy practice always requires educational development of the pharmacists.

OPL plan is to secure all the needed tools to make this process available in the most efficient and effective way to all our colleagues, enabling them to develop their knowledge and skills.

In this third edition of the user's guide, you will find all you need to help you use and get the best and the latest of OPL's web services, accessible and/or downloadable through www.opl.org.lb

1. The new website

A 2-phases website: one for the public with limited access to the contents, and one for the pharmacist/student with accessibility to full contents after logging in.

2. The e-mail

A must have to access the e-library and Swank (our new CE program platform).

Activating and using your e-mail will allow you to:

- Receive mails from OPL
- Connect to OPL e-Library
- Receive newsletters from OPL. These newsletters are intended either to inform the pharmacist (circulars), or to inform the public during awareness campaigns. In this case, the pharmacist will have to print it and distribute it in his pharmacy.
- Keep in touch with the Order of Pharmacists and send your CE Credits for validation in our new mandatory Continuing Education Program

3. The OPL e-services

Will be available as of 2014 second semester and will allow you to:

- Check your payment balance at OPL and OPL funds
- Do all your payments online
- Ask for all kind of documents from OPL (hard copies will be sent by LibanPost)

4. The online forms

The forms available online are:

- Complaints
- Suggestions
- Training certificate (currently downloadable but will be soon online)
- Recruitment Request form
- Employment Request form

And the following form will be available as of 2014 second semester:

- Employment certificate

5. The OPLconnect application

A Windows-based application which will allow OPL to send you:

- Reminders: congress, pharmacy day, sport event...
- Alerts: withdrawal of a drug, pictures of thieves caught by security cameras...
- Important links
- News: price variation, OPL activities...

6. The OPL e-Library

An easy and a pleasant learning tool:

- Check drug interactions and get the latest updates in evidence based medicine in Diseases and conditions from UpToDate
- Browse the most trusted books in pharmacy practice, Medications errors, Psychiatry

- Read latest updates about herbal medicine
- Make calculations easily
- Search any clinical topic using federated search engine across all databases

7. The Swank platform

Accessible through the e-library, Swank is a Learning Management System which provides continuing education courses in different areas:

- Pharmacy
- Clinical Laboratory Science
- Dietetics
- Patient Education

Other courses will be added to expand the course list.
